HERITAGE AUCTIONS

JIM PARSONS & DAVID BUSH

Jim Parsons (above), a native of Baytown, Texas, puts a passion for the state's history and architecture to work as director of special projects and walking tours chairman for Preservation Houston. A freelance writer, editor and photographer, he has written about and photographed cities across the United States.

David Bush (below) was born and raised in New Orleans, where he developed his lifelong interest in historic architecture. David holds a master's degree in historic preservation from Middle Tennessee State University and has worked professionally in preservation since 1990. He has spent most of his career with two organizations, Galveston Historical Foundation and Preservation Houston.

Jim and David are co-authors of three award-winning books about Art Deco architecture in Texas: Houston Deco, Hill Country Deco and Fair Park Deco. Their fourth book, Dallas-Fort Worth Deco, is due for a late summer release by TCU Press of Fort Worth.
